

Waterways Management SubCommittee 2008 - Charge 6

Ed Steinkoenig: Virginia Department of Game & Inland Fisheries
Chris Stec: American Canoe Association

Charge #6 Begin to develop a one-day workshop curriculum and related materials using the Guide for Multiple Use Waterways Management that can be used to teach mitigation of waterway user conflicts. Develop a zoning matrix that can be taught as part of the curriculum. (NASBLA 3.1)

Tentative Timeline:

- June 11: Brainstorm session
- June 27: Email to WM SubCommittee members requesting 'hot topic' issues for consideration as a case study in the workshop
- July 18: Choose 5 'hot topic' issues to be used as case studies
- August 22: Send out preliminary workshop draft to WM SubCommittee prior to NASBLA Conference
- September: Present a Draft Format of Workshop at NASBLA Conference for WM SubCommittee Final Review and Comments
- December: Finalize Workshop Format
Arrange Case Study Presenters for 2009 Workshop
- April 2009: Workshop at IBWSS in Panama City Beach, FL

Potential Workshop Format:

- 8:30 Introduction and Opening Remarks
 Overview of 'A Guide for Multiple Use Waterway Management'
 2 Case Studies
- 12:00 Lunch
- 1:00 3 Case Studies
 Roundtable Discussion on Waterway Management Issues pertinent to Workshop Participants
- 4:30 Wrap Up & Conclusion

Potential 'Hot Topic' Issues to be considered for Case Studies:

- Environmental Stewardship Concerns
- Multiple Jurisdiction Issues (Signage, Federal vs State, Multiple State Agencies, etc)
- Increasing Volume of Waterway Users
- Human Powered Boat Concerns
- Shoreline Activities (Developers, Fisherman, Swimmers, etc)
- PWC
- Invasive (Plants, Animals, Invertebrates, Pollutants)
- Enforcement of Various Regulations
- Low Head Dams

Other Thoughts / Topics:

- Required Pre-Workshop readings???
- Is this a 1 time workshop or a program that will be offered multiple times?
- Review previous IBWSS proceedings to see who presented which topics that might be beneficial to discuss in this Workshop, also potential for case study presenters.
- Develop Learning Objectives for Participants.
- Develop a Basic Agenda to Handout to Participants.
- Develop an Additional Resource Supplement Handout for Participants.
- Who leads / facilitates the Workshop?
- If this is an Ongoing Workshop
 - Develop a Criteria for Periodic Review
 - Develop a Powerpoint Presentation
 - Develop the Zoning Matrix
