

Governance Committee

The role of NASBLA's Governance Committee is to monitor NASBLA's association governance and conduct board development and training programs. This responsibility requires them to:

- Evaluate the work of the board and to provide general oversight for the health, well-being, and perpetuation of the board, to make sure the board is living up to its potential and members continually engage in board work.
- Convey the legal side of board service and the liabilities included in it.
- Monitor adequacy of the organization's bylaws, strategic agenda.
- Conduct board development/training, policy development, and mission.

The members of this committee are:
Immediate Past President, Chair
Two Members At-Large

Staffed by: Ron Sarver, Deputy Director