

Nominations Committee

The role of NASBLA's Nominations Committee is to:

- Recruit excellent, enthusiastic people with appropriate skills for service on the Executive Board.
- Teach potential board candidates what it means in matters of time and effort to serve on the Executive Board.
- Inform potential board candidates of the fiduciary responsibilities of board membership and help them understand the seriousness with which they should undertake their service.

The members of this committee are:

Immediate Past-President, Chair

Two other Past Presidents

Two current program committee chairs

Staffed by: John Johnson, CEO